Subject: Application Serial No. 09/866,981
IBM Docket No. ROC9-1997-0187-US2

Sir:

The following fax transmission includes copies of the Amendment after Final filed June 1, 2004, and the postcard acknowledging receipt by the PTO.

Upon review I noticed that, although the correct serial number appears on the postcard, on the Amendment/Response Transmittal cover sheet, and at the bottom of each page of the amendment, the serial number in the header of the amendment is incorrect. This could explain why the amendment went astray. I have hand corrected the number in the copy I am sending you, to avoid any possibility of further mistake. However, the amendment as originally filed did not contain this hand correction. In all other respects, the faxed amendment is a true copy. I apologize for this error.

Respectfully submitted,

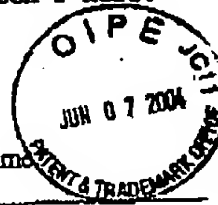

Roy Truelson
